Background:

Every day, in every country in the world, women are confronted by discrimination and inequality. They face violence, abuse and unequal treatment at home, at work and in their wider communities – and are denied opportunities to learn, to earn and to lead.

They have fewer resources, less power and less influence compared to men, and can experience further inequality because of their class, ethnicity and age, as well as religious and other fundamentalism.

Dear Principal,

Radhakrishna Institute of Technology and Engineering

IDCO Plot No-1, Khordha Industrial Estate, Bhubaneswar

I am writing to express my sincerest appreciation to you and your team for inviting me to speak about "Gender Justice in India" to your students on 27.11.2017. It was an honour and privilege to be given the opportunity to share my experience and knowledge with the students of your esteemed college.

The experience of speaking to your students was truly rewarding for me. The level of engagement and interaction from the students was outstanding, and I greatly enjoyed the insightful questions and comments that were raised during the session. The enthusiasm and interest displayed by the students are a testament to the quality of education provided by your college.

I commend your college for its commitment to providing a well-rounded education to its students. The opportunity to speak at your college allowed me to contribute to this mission and promote education, particularly in the field of law. I'm sure the students have benefitted greatly from the discussion, and I hope that the information I shared motivated them to achieve their goals.

Once again, thank you for giving me this opportunity to speak to your students. It was a memorable experience for me, and I'm glad I could contribute to your stellar program. I look forward to collaborating with you and the college in the future.

Sincerely,
Nityananda Pradhan
